Todoroki Falls
Todoroki falls is the tallest waterfalls in Shikoku and also one of Japan's top 100 waterfalls. Along the other smaller waterfalls surrounding all around the area, they are jointly referred to as the [99 Todoroki Falls].
Both Todoroki Temple and Ryuouji Temple are enshrined in the same area - making the place not only beautiful, but also spiritual. And a leisurely 2-hour return walk leading to the highest Todoroki Falls - Nabewan Falls - a 59-meter fall, is definitely recommended!

[Access]
-Get off at [Awa Kainan Station] from a JR Mugi line train → Ride the city bus to [Todoroki Temple] → 10 minute walk from bus stop
-3 hours by car from Tokushima Interchange
